

Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel
Wednesday - 22 September 1976

Page 3

9. (Internal Use Only - LLM) BRIEFING Accompanied the Director to a briefing of the Subcommittee on Arms Control, International Organizations and Security Agreements, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, on [REDACTED] capabilities. (See Memorandum for the Record.

10. (Internal Use Only - LLM) LIAISON Fred Ruth, Legislative Assistant to Senator Dewey Bartlett (R., Okla.), called on the Senator's continued interest in KGB activities in the United States. I told Ruth that he should be in contact with the FBI, which he was, and I referred him to the book, KGB, The Secret Work of Soviet Secret Agents, by John Barron.

11. (Internal Use Only - LLM) LIAISON Called Larry Smith, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, and assured him that our Soviet civil defense study was not yet completed and we were keeping his interests in mind. In the meantime, I said we were gathering some other material for him.

12. (Unclassified - LLM) LEGISLATION Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, called and said that both Chairmen Melvin Price (D., Ill.) and Lucien Nedzi (D., Mich.) were sympathetic to our problems with S. 3664 and would support our position and amendment with Chairman John Murphy (R., N.Y.).

13. (Internal Use Only - LLM) LIAISON Called Sam Hoskinson, NSC Staff, on the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence request for OAG guidelines and he agreed that providing the procedures as approved was consistent with the proposed action of the Agency in providing its covert action regulations.

I also discussed with Hoskinson the problems we were encountering in answering Representative Leonor Sullivan's (D., Mo.) request concerning [REDACTED] I explained our intentions to Hoskinson.

14. (Unclassified - JK) LIAISON Called Ralph Preston, House Appropriations Defense Subcommittee staff, to request a copy of GAO's opinion regarding legality of IC Staff expenditures under a separate appropriation. Preston informed me that we would have to wait until Charles Snodgrass, House Appropriations Defense Subcommittee staff, returned to obtain a copy.